Alex Pauk conductor

Hear Esprit Orchestra perform world premieres of new works by two important emerging Canadian composers working and making major impact abroad: Zosha Di Castri and Christopher Mayo. The program also features the North American premiere of a new piece by Louis Andriessen, one of Europe's most eminent and influential composers. Andriessen's Mysteriën was recently premiered by Royal Concertgebouw Orchestra. Inspired by the music of Led Zeppelin, Mark-Anthony Turnage's Out of Black Dust, for orchestral brass, is very jazzy and fun.
